ALBANY PROBERS TO ACT

Figures Compiled From District Attorneys' Files Refute Boasts of Efficiency.

There has been an unprecedented record of unsolved murders in New fork city since Richard B. Enright vas appointed Police Commissioner by Mayor Hylan, on January 28, 1918, and up to August 1 of this year. In that period there were 383 murders which The biggest increase was in Manhattan and Brooklyn, according to records obtained from the District Attorneys' offices in these boroughs. In the other three boroughs there was only a slight increase of unsolved murder cases, available reports show. Based on information which may be slightly over or under estimated there has been an approximate 35 per cent, increase in such cases compared with former

The increased number of unsolved murder mysteries no doubt will play an important part in the investigation of the Meyer committee into the efficiency of the Police Department. Commissioner Enright will be asked many questions on this particular many questions on this particular phase of his administration.

In 1918 there were seventy-eight unsolved murders, in 1919 there were 103, 1920 had 111, and up to August 1 of this year there were ninety-one. Despite this fact both Mayor Hylan and Mr. Enright have declared frequently that their police administration is the best ever known in the history of New York city.

182 in Monbattan Alone.

From January 28, 1918, to August 1 of this year during the Hylan-Enright administration of the Police Department there [were 172 unsolved murders in Manhattan. In Brooklyn there were 137, twenty-three in The Bronx, twenty-three to Overs and sighteen in Richmond. twenty-three in The Bronx, twenty-three in Queens and eighteen in Richmond. In Brooklyn, the home borough of Mr. Duright and Mayor Hylan, official records were obtainable only for the years 1920 and 1921, while the murder records for 1918 and 1919 are based on approximate figures obtained from the newly established homicide bureau in the office of District Attorney Lewis. Figures for the other four boroughs are based on official records.

A Valuable Asset

Some one has said about something, we do not know what:

"Tis better to have it sendenot need it, than to need it and not have it.

This sentence applies very aptly to title insurance. Most titles are good-but a bad one can cause a terrible lot of trouble.

Title insurance costs no more than title examination, but when trouble comes the policy is the most welcome of assets.
